

THE SINGLE CASE OF RE-CONVENTION HARDING COOLIDGE

Managers Are Not to Wait Until Harding and Coolidge Are Officially Notified of Their Nominations—Chairman Hays is to Name Members of New Executive Committee Without Delay—Seven of the Committee Will Be Women—Senator Harding's Nomination Came in the Tenth Ballot, When He Received 692 Votes—Coolidge Was Swept Into the Vice Presidential Nomination on the First Ballot, Which Stood Coolidge 674, Lenroot 146, Allen 68.

Chicago, June 13.—Campaign managers for Senator Warren G. Harding of Ohio, who was made the presidential nominee by the republican national convention Saturday night, said today no time would be lost in getting things under way. Harry M. Daugherty, director of Senator Harding's pre-convention campaign, requested the national committee to take "prompt, snappy and energetic action" in placing the merits of the republican nominee before the voters of the country. Party managers, it was said, would not wait until Senator Harding and Governor Calvin Coolidge of Massachusetts, are officially notified of their nomination, but plan to start the campaign soon after the democratic convention is held.

Will H. Hays, re-elected chairman by the new national committee, was out of town today, resting after his strenuous days during the convention. The members of the new executive committee of whom seven will be women, will be named without delay by Chairman Hays. A vice chairman of the executive committee, who will be a woman, will be elected at the time the committee is announced.

The resolution passed in the final minutes of the convention forecasts a change in the representation of the republican party from southern states at national conventions. The resolution, offered by former Congressman Fred Howard of Ohio, provides that the proportion of delegates to conventions shall be in proportion to the republican votes cast in the states.

Testimony before the national committee ten days ago in its examination of claims of contesting delegations from several southern states, showed certain delegates represented only a small constituency as compared to delegates from other sections of the country. The resolution, therefore, passed by a large majority, notwithstanding the vigorous protests from Louisiana, Alabama and Texas, provides "that in order to effect proper and necessary changes in the proportion of delegates in proportion to the republican votes actually cast at general elections throughout the various states, and in order to insure a greater effort to elect and maintain substantial party organizations in all the states, the national committee, in adopting a new platform, hereafter adopted, is directed within twelve months to effect a just and equitable basis of representation in future national conventions, and that the same shall be set forth in the call for the next convention and be binding upon all other future conventions, until otherwise ordered."

their real activities, the senate committee investigating campaign funds will resume hearings, holding its first session in Chicago, July 7. While the committee has been authorized to extend its investigations, Senator Kenyon, its chairman, said no plans had yet been made to inquire into campaign funds up to election day.

The republican presidential nominee will become the center of the campaign of the National Woman's Party to bring about ratification of the suffrage federal constitutional amendment, according to a statement issued by suffrage leaders.

A large delegation of women from many states is expected to arrive in Chicago today. It was announced that Senator Harding and his wife will be in the city upon republican action to secure the thirty-sixth state for ratification.

"Our campaign against republican obstruction to suffrage is not over," said the statement. "We will continue publicly and insistently to demand action from the republican party to complete suffrage ratification. Since our picketing began at the republican convention hall, additional pressure has been exerted by republican leaders to secure a special session in Vermont."

Delegates and visitors attracted to Chicago by the national convention, lost no time in getting away from town, after the nominations were made. Today, there were few delegates here and virtually no party leaders. The train leaving for Washington late Saturday night in the same train with Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, chairman of the convention, and Senators Smoot, Senator Johnson of California, also departed.

DETAILS OF THE NOMINATION OF HARDING AND COOLIDGE
Chicago, June 13.—Warren G. Harding of Ohio, who was made the presidential nominee by the republican national convention yesterday by the republican party, yesterday after a deadlock which lasted for nine ballots and which was broken by the vote of the running all the original favorites.

As his running mate, the convention named Governor Calvin Coolidge of Massachusetts, upsetting a plan of a combination of the Harding backers to nominate for the place Senator Irvine L. Lenroot of Wisconsin.

The collapse of the forces of Governor Frank O. Lowden to Senator Harding put the Ohio candidate in a position to hold the nomination. However, when the Harding drift began, and Senator Johnson, the third of the trio of leaders on the early balloting yesterday, also went steadily downhill.

Fight Brewing in the Polish Forces Have Evacuated Kiev

Are to Renew Attack Upon the Arrival of Reinforcements Now Coming Up—Retreat Was Orderly.

Warsaw, June 9 (By the A. P.).—The evacuation of Kiev has been completed, the Poles withdrawing to the region of Volhynia. The American Red Cross workers, according to latest reports, had made preparations to evacuate Kiev with the army.

News of the evacuation of Kiev reached Warsaw Saturday night, which was the first report from Kiev in several days. Just prior to the cutting off of communication by the bolsheviks, General Rydz-Smigly, the commander at Kiev, sent a despatch that he would make a stand unless otherwise ordered. With difficulty the Poles got through a personal order from General Pilsudski, the commander-in-chief, to the Kiev commander to evacuate immediately.

General Budynski, the Russian commander, who fought against Denikin, is being exhausted by these hardships. Patches say, but the military authorities assert that the fight for Kiev is not yet ended by any means.

TO PROTEST DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY BY POLES
London, June 12.—The workers of the world are appealed to by the Russian official Verkhovskiy, who has been against property destruction by the Poles at Kiev and Borisov, says a wireless message received from Moscow. The responsibility for this damage, asserts the appeal, must be shared by the British and French governments. It declares the destruction of the Vladimir cathedral a more barbarous act than the destruction of Rheims cathedral by the Germans.

"The patience of the world's proletarians," continues the statement, "must surely be exhausted by these barbarities. The Polish army must be made harmless. We must abolish the barbarous rule of the landowners and capitalists by means of a co-operation with the Polish workers."

AN ALBANIAN DELEGATE ASSASSINATED IN PARIS

Essad Pasha, Head of the Delegation, Was Shot by an Albanian Student—Albanian Insurgents, Aided by Serbians, Are Attempting to Drive Italy From the Balkans—Italians Arrested and Deported More Than 1,000 Musselman Albanians—In Reprisal a Number of Italian Prisoners Have Been Shot by the Albanians—Italian Warships Have Bombed and Razed Villages.

Paris, June 13.—Essad Pasha, head of the Albanian delegation in Paris, and former provisional president of Albania, was assassinated here today. Three shots were fired at him by an Albanian student, two of which took effect.

Essad Pasha was emerging from the Hotel Continental in the Rue Castiglione when he was suddenly confronted by a young man who later gave his name as Rustem Avdullahu and said he was an Albanian student. Without uttering a word Rustem fired two shots which struck Essad Pasha in the chest and another which went into his arm, as he fell to the ground. He was picked up and taken to his bedroom where he died shortly afterwards.

The assassin was arrested by a waiter. He told the police he arrived in Paris on May 31 and declared the crime was not premeditated. Recognizing Essad Pasha on the street, whom he held to be responsible for the sufferings of Albanians, he said he held a sudden impulse and fired the shots. Rustem turned E. C. "the Albanian dictator."

Essad Pasha had a picturesque career. Regarded by all the European governments in 1913 merely as an outlaw, three years later he was recognized by the same powers as provisional president and minister of war of Albania, following the downfall of Prince William of Wied. Essad's selection as president of Albania was in reward for his services to the Allies early in the war in the fighting against Austria.

At one time Essad was commander of the Albanian army in Macedonia. His brother having been killed by order of Sultan Abdul Hamid, Essad conceived a hatred of the sultan which led him, when the Turkish parliament in 1908 decided upon the deposition of Abdul Hamid, to solicit and receive permission to notify the sultan of his downfall and arrest him.

Recently an insurrection was begun against the Italians and it was only a few days ago that the Temps reported an agreement had been concluded between Essad and the government. It was reported that Essad would use his influence in Albania in favor of Jugoslavia. In return for this, the report added, Jugoslavia would support him against the Italians.

The express was badly shaken up but only three were injured seriously enough to require medical attention.

The train was moving at a slow speed when the accident occurred. The freight cars probably prevented it from dropping into the Croton falls. Several people were injured, but none seriously. The accident was caused, railroad officials said, by a heavy piece of iron which fell from the bottom of the baggage car.

The engine and the baggage car nearly turned over on their sides but none of their occupants was hurt.
